HOW WE ARE DIFFERENT

- We encourage meeting you and your contractors onsite to walk the property together so potential problems can be identified and addressed prior to design and construction
- We give ambitious, yet realistic times of completion to aid in achieving your development goals. We deliver results not empty promises!
- We encourage meeting with you and your contractors for valuable input before finalizing design elements to ensure everyone is on the same page. This saves you time and money.
- Because we have a multi-disciplinary staff, our engineering solutions are scrutinized to produce the most aesthetic result
- Our professionals have many years combined experience in surveying and construction administration. This experience is valuable to the development of a successful set of construction documents.

Day Design Group has worked with several Metro Atlanta firms of various disciplines and can help coordinate your development needs.
